Independent Financial Group Reports Final Earnings and Growth for 2015

San Diego, CA –Independent Financial Group, LLC (IFG) today reported its overall 2015 earnings. As of December 31, 2015 the firm’s revenue totaled $124,403,000, up 4.8% from the previous year. Mutual Fund, Insurance and Fee revenue also increased; up 25% and 12%, respectively. Additionally, the firm’s number of affiliated financial advisors has grown from 565 to 600 and average payout per advisor has gone up from $184,000 to $203,000.

“We continue to thrive in the b-d space because we work for our financial advisors, not the other way around,” comments Scott Heising, Owner and Managing Director of the San Diego-based broker-dealer. He further explains, “I founded the firm in 2003 with the vision to service our reps well: execute business quickly, deliver great service, and remain truly independent.” He continues, “We’ve seen a mass consolidation in the past few years and few of us remain that are privately-held.” He concludes, “We continue to see growth year-to-year because we stay true to the values on which we were founded and remain committed to the success of our advisors.”
